Republicans of the Tenth district have nominated the Hon. T. J. Hopkins, of Pike county, for Congress.
He was a member of the last Legislature.

Assassin Prendergast has been found sane and sentenced to be hung July 13. If a new trial is refused his counsel will take an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Judge Robertson, of Mason county, has withdrawn from the race for the Appellate Judgeship. The race seems to be narrowing down to Paynter and Washington.

The enormous cost of the sugar bounty law is shown by the payments for the fiscal year just closed, which were: Cane, $11,216,304; beet, $753,733; sorghum, $16,920; maple, $116,122. Total, $12,108, 085.

Says a prominent and well-posted Bath county Democrat, who is personally well acquainted with Mr. Hart:

"Hos. R. K. Hart, Democratic candidate for Congress, is a son of the late Theo. Hart, of Fleming county, who was one of the most extensive farmers in Eastern Kentucky, and was known far and wide for his deeds of charity to the poor.
The mantle of the father is being worthily worn by the son.

The anarchists seem to be making a united move throughout Europe. A report from St. Petersburg says the Czar recently found upon his table a document which set forth that sentence of death would be carried out within twenty-four hours. Subsequently the Czar found upon his dressing-room table a skull, with "Alexander" on the frontal bone. Gen. Tscherehin, in charge of the Lonschold, and other Imperial servants have been dismissed.

The Democratic party was last elected for a four year's term. It has served but a third of its time.
Let not our Republican friends become too impatient. It took them thirty years to perfect their system of robbery. It is the Democratic policy to wipe it from the face of the earth, but it has so permeated every nook and corner of business and commerce that its destruction at a blow would be too severe a shock to the patient. Time and a little sweet oil will do the work nicely.—Fleming News.

The example set by Illinois Democrats is one worthy of being followed in every state in the union.
They have regularly nominated in State Convention their choice for United States Senator. This is the nearest thing to electing Senators by the people that can be found, under the prevailing laws. The Democrats should go a step farther and get a pledge from the nominee to support genuine Democratic measures.

A Million Friends.
A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, and trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all cases of Throat, Chest and Lung Trouble, and guaranteed to do all that is claimed if money will be refunded. Trial bottles FREE at A. M.
Hughes' drug store, Lar, e Bottles and $1.

Why Republican Editors Sup- ported Pugh.

There can now be but little doubt as to why the Republicans of the Ninth district nominated Hon. S. J. Pugh for Congress. It was not because he is stronger personally than any of the other candidates or superior to them intellectually, but simply for the reason that he has plenty of money back of him and in that way can corrupt the voters of the district.
When the charge was first made that Judge "Morg" Thomas would spend large sums of money to elect Pugh, his son-in-law, to Congress, it was denounced as a Democratic lie, although the Judge has a reputation far and near as a great believer in the use of money at the polls.

The editor of the Bath County Banner, a staunch Republican, lets the cat out, however, and openly announces why he favored Pugh's nomination, thereby confirming all the charges made. He says:
"I regard Pugh as the most available candidate that went before the convention, not that he is better qualified to go before the people and discuss the political issues in a bolder, clearer, stronger and more plausible manner than Gudgeon, nor because he is a more pleasing orator. But while Pugh is his equal on the 'stump,' his 'pocket eloquence' is 'out of sight.' He carries in an old pocketbook in his left hand breeches pocket more enthusiasm than all the other candidates could draw to the surface with their tongues and pens, labor they never so hard."

A great and unjust railroad strike is now prevailing throughout the country, and business is almost paralyzed. It is perhaps the most inexcusable and senseless strike which ever assumed any considerable proportions in this country. Thousands of men with no gratitude quit their work by order of an ignorant agitator—Debs—who is at the head of the American Railway Union. The origin of the trouble and the only reason assigned for it is a disagreement between the Pullman Car Company and its employees. The railroads struck "in sympathy" and have been boldly defying the officers of the law who have been called out to stop all manner of lawlessness committed by the strikers. Trains are not allowed to move and traffic is suspended. Many industries are closed in consequence and business is suffering various kinds of losses and inconveniences. The transmission of mails has been interfered with and the President has ordered out U. S. troops to protect the rights of the government.
The strikers will not allow other men to take their places.

DEREFIELD.

We have had plenty of rain for the past week. There was the hardest storm here on last Tuesday evening that ever roamed over mountains of old Kentucky.
George Carter, of Prosperity, was visiting relatives at Derefieid.
Miss Carter Jobe is visiting her uncle Gardner Smith.
Croford Wellman and wife is very ill at this writing.
Millard Rose has purchased a fine colt.
James Bartlett preached an interesting sermon at Oliverville, on last Sunday.
D. M. Currutte, was on our streets yesterday.
There is a good Sunday School at Skaggs Chapel now, with a large attendance.
Sackie Adams and Minnie Large were the pleasant guests of Birdie and Laura Rose yesterday.
Richard Carter visited his brother-in-law last Saturday.
L. F. Webb visited his best girl Tuesday eve.
Mrs. Larmina Rose visited Mrs.
Cainie Jobe a visit yesterday.
John Carter is painting his new house.

ONION EATER.

James Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is necessary.

GEORGE'S CREEK.

Corn crops are looking nice since the fine rain.
There is a great deal of sickness around in this vicinity.
Born, on the 21, to Leondas Borders and wife, a fine boy. Leondas is all smiles now.
We are glad to say that Oliver Miller, who was struck by lightning last Wednesday, is improving nicely.
H. T. Castle and wife, Mrs. Wm.
Castle and grand-daughter, Grace Vaughan, attended church at Riverside Sunday.
The funeral of little Herbert Castle will be preached the fourth Saturday in July at Burgess Chapel by Rev. French Rice.

Several of the folks of this place are going to spend their fourth at Louisa. They are expecting to have a fine time.
Miss Lou Parks returned home Saturday from a week's visit with friends and relatives at Grave's Shoals.
Elgie and Clarence Hinkle, of Perch Orchard, were calling on their best girls Sunday.

PINE APPLE.

Elder, S. S. Beaver, of McAllisterville, Juniatia Co., Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by A. M. Hughes,

WANTED—JUSTICE.

Farmer "Coal Blast" Answers a Slander and Talks of Other Things.

CAT RIDGE, KY., July 3.

EDITOR BIG SANDY NEWS.
We are told that "self preservation is the first law of nature." So to observe that law Cold Blast has not appeared in the News for a "fort-night."

An old gentleman of Floyd county, on being examined as a juror in a murder trial, was asked if he believed in capital punishment. His answer being such that the attorney clearly understood that he did not comprehend the meaning of "capital punishment," he was asked if he believed in hanging. Rep-sively he said "O: yes sir! yes sir! it is very necessary to hang once in a while." I am like this old man. Some men ought to be hung occasionally.

I know Mr. Editor, that a newspaper is not like a board fence, that any man may come along and scribble over it at will; and, too, I am varying from a fixed policy.
But I shall ask space to pay my respects in a mixed way to a certain correspondent at Fallsburg under the nondeplume of "Perigrine." I quote as near as I can from memory a paragraph in a communication not long since by this correspondent: "The Cat country, after producing thieves and murderers, has produced Coal Blast, the eminent politician, and now I learn it is infested with counterfeiters."

Now, if these times had appeared in some eastern daily or Chicago Inter-Ocean, who have hired villains in the field hatching up such malicious filth for the money that is in it we would look at it with less seriousness. But, Mr. Editor, when it comes to a neighbor, a man of mature years, one who has for years past been pleased to receive material aid from almost every citizen of the Cat country, to so far lose his head as to be guilty of a wanton attack upon his own county and neighbor, many of whom he would be pleased to call his friends, it is hardly safe it seems to me for this man to be allowed to run at large. I'm a good deal like the Irish witness by the lawyer who concluded he would brush the witness a little for his conduct on the stand. He said to him, "Now aint you a nice fellow?"
"Yes," responded the witness, "and I would say the same of ye if I was not on me oath." But "There be those whose sissider is praise, and whose defamations honors its object."

Have you not yet understood that to attack the morals of a community in an article published to the world is to that degree attacking the individual character of every citizen living in the territory?
I know you will deny the allegation, but it is none the less true. I am not asking one word for Coal Blast, not half a word. Pour it into him as much as your liking may dictate, but in the name of decency, justice and honor, spare the many good men, virtuous women and orphan children that this, the better part of our country affords.

Perigrine, in all good feeling and candor, if I could not better control that political pencil of mine I would flip it over into the mill pond and let the tide carry it as the Republican tax laws of this country have carried the farmer over the cataract of destruction.
Now I ask in the name of friendship, don't do this again.

I know that you understand that you are a misfit as a political contributor, and so, here's my hand.
Good-bye old boy. If you should drop into the cold, cold tomb before I, I will drop a tear of sympathy and roll a barrel of "4 X Fancy" into the back door of the widow in times of need. But as to politics, never. I will die in the ditch, with my boots on before I will surrender to such oppression.
I shall rally around the old banner of Jeffersonian Democracy as long as there is a frazzle left; and as to the Democratic party—
"For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end."

Referring again to the useless charge that has been brought upon us I would like to ask this question: "What is the difference between a little thief and a big one?
I suppose one steals from necessity, the other must necessarily steal.
Or I think I can put another light upon it by narrating an incident that occurred in a Circuit Court not many years ago. A negro who had been convicted of stealing some chickens got two years in the pen. A white man who stole twenty head of big fat steers got one year. On being brought up for sentence the Judge asked the negro if he had any reason to show why sentence should not be pronounced. He said, "No, Mr. Judge, but I wish I do stole dem cattle." Look if you please at the enormous steal perpetrated on the people of this country by the late Senator Stanford, C. P. Huntington, Hopkins and Croker, (this cornpendent has not a word to say of these thieves) in their Pacific railroad scheme. In 1844 when M. A.

Whitney, of New York, proposed the plan of building this road the estimated cost in those primitive days of railroad building by Mr.
Freemont, the engineer, was but forty million dollars. But somehow these sharpers pulled the leg of a Republican Congress and now the people of this country are into this scheme nearly a hundred million dollars and the most bitter thing the American people has had to take since the days of King James was from the lips of Mr.
Hoar, that great Republican Senator from Massachusetts, who rose up in the Senate as stately as a circus tent and demanded in language as defiant as a barbarian chief that the dead man's (Stanford's) estate recover this money. Mr. Hoar said he (Stanford) had been an honored member of this body, and to take this $15,000,000 (his part of the steal) from his widow would be a disgrace to the fair name of the United States to pay.

My friends, how many widows are there in Lawrence county, from whom to take 20 cents for each member of the family, would be to take their last cent and not leave a dust of meal in the barrel. Mrs.
Stanford could pay it and still have seventeen million dollars left to her credit. The people of this country, Mr. Hoar, are getting so they can see as far into a mill-stone as the man that picks it.

Obituary.

Janie, the three year old daughter of A. R. Queen and Columbia Queen serenely left the shores of time for that land from whose bourn no traveler as yet ever returned, on June 23d, 1894, at her home near Kinner, Ky. She was afflicted with acute spinal affliction for nearly seventeen days. Her sufferings were intense and seemed almost unbearable, yet so young she bore them with all the patience and meekness that could have been possible of one of more mature years. All possible earthly assistance was rendered for the restoration of her health by never tiring, loving, tender hands of relatives and friends, but the Almighty God saw fit in His goodness to take her from their midst. We bow in humble submission to him whose chastisements are meant in much mercy and who doth all things well. While little Janie will be missed from her home, missed by her playmates, missed by brothers and sisters she is not dead to them.
She will be as a bright shining star which will be ever near her father, mother, brothers and sisters.
God in his divine omniscience needed one more angel child in Paradise, so he bent his loving arm and clasped little Janie's hand and waited her beyond this veil of tears where sickness, sorrow, sin, nor death are felt and feared no more, there to be one of His precious jewels and sing songs of praise to Him.
She will remain there while countless ages roll their solemn rounds as a true treasure and a divine incentive to relations and friends to become as little Janie; for of such as she is the Kingdom of Heaven composed.

We in union with entire community extend to the bereaved parents and relations our heartfelt sympathy and ask that this be published in Big Sandy News.
This lovely but so young and fair Called hence by early doom, Just came to see how sweet a flower In Paradise would bloom.
Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade Death came with friendly care
The opening bud to Heaven conveyed
And bade it blossom there.

FOUR BIG SUCCESSSES.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, coughs and colic, each one guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the greatest remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A.
M. Hughes' drugstore.

BUSSEYVILLE.

Wheat harvest is at hand and crops good with few exceptions.
The recent rain has helped crops wonderfully. We hope so much that the Republicans can live and not grumble so much about the present administration. They surely have been doing wrong for quite a while for the Bible tells us in the 3d chapter and 25 verse of Colossians "He that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done, and there is no respect of persons." So I think you had better come over on the right side and do right.

Misses Emma Muncey and Mary Haws, of Smokey Valley, visited their cousin last week, Mrs. Cuzzie Heberlin.

Electropoise!

For Babies as Well as Old Folks.

I am glad to say that the Electro-poise has cured me of rheumatism and illness, the result of typhoid fever, as well as catarrh. Have used it in the family from mother-in-law 73 years old down to the baby, used it on the baby while teething and it worked like a charm.
For throat trouble we have never found anything to equal it. Several of my neighbors have them and are all well pleased. I can not say too much in praise of the Electro-poise. Mrs. F. M. CALLAHAN, Vernon, Ky.

Brain Congestion and Vertigo Cured with Electropoise.

Sirs: Last July I was taken with vertigo, a congestion of the smaller blood vessels of the brain (hypertension). I could not study; everything I ate disagreed with me; at last I ate no solid food, but even soups and liquid food did not agree with me; I was induced to try the "Electropoise;" in one night's time it relieved the brain congestion and vertigo. I began the next day to study; I ate from that time what I pleased, and since then I have been a comparatively well man. Rev. Geo. H. MEANS, Covington, Ky.

Practical as Well as Theoret- ical.

I am much pleased with my experience with the Electropoise, and believe it in advance of any known remedy in theory for the restoration of the normal condition of the system, and its effects in the cure of disease has proved its efficacy practically and theoretically.
For a short while only, the Electro-poise will be rented for two months for $5.00.

Sunday School Picnic.

Supt. R. T. Burns has selected next Thursday, July 12th, as the day on which the promised Sunday School picnic shall be held. The place will be back in the country a short distance—probably across the hill back of town, on the old picnic ground. The M. E. and the Baptist Sunday Schools are invited to participate. Mr. Burns will be home before that time and his presence insures a good time.
Let's make it a good, big day.

Mr. Watt's Good Luck.

Mr. J. M. G. Watt has been appointed to a position in the U. S.
Engineer's office at Cincinnati at a salary of $1,800 per annum, with probability of increase to $2,000 within a few months. The work is principally drafting, and the position is the better of two from which rampant Republicans were recently removed. The efficient service rendered by Mr. Watt in similar work under Mr. Thomas and Major Lockwood in the past secured the position for him. The appointment belonged to Congressman Al.
Berry's patronage, and was made upon his endorsement. Mr. Watt's residence was given as Louisia, Ky.
His friends at this place are glad to learn of his good fortune.

Our 4th of July.

A more unpromising day for 4th of July exercises could hardly have been made to order than that which dawned upon us Wednesday morning, and the threatening aspect prevailed throughout the day; but fortunately no rain fell, the clouds furnished protection from the sun, and the weather proved delightfully suitable for outdoor doings.

The calithumpian parade was made up of goodly numbers attired in grotesque costumes. After marching through the principal streets the procession halted at the conjunction of Main and Main Cross streets, where a large crowd was assembled. Maj. D. J. Burchett was called upon for a speech and promptly responded. His effort was one to be proud of, especially as he had only very short notice.
He stuck to his text closely and his address was full of feeling. In short, it was about the best Fourth of July speech which has been delivered in Louisia.

Headed by the brass band the crowd then proceeded to the base ball grounds, where the Kenova, W. Va., team crossed bats with the Louisia nine. The game was one-sided from the beginning. Kenova took the bats first and were white-washed. Louisia made four runs in their first inning, and in eight innings they piled up 14 runs, giving their opponents nothing but "goose eggs" throughout the nine innings. Ed. Reuss and Lindsay Tucker formed the battery for Louisia throughout the game and did fine work. The fielding by the Louisia players was lively and almost faultless. There was but one wild throw and only two other errors.

The foot race was the first thing in the afternoon and was easily won by George Carey.

An old man named Stevenson was decided to be the ugliest man on the ground and was given a barrel of flour.

Miss Jack Carey, of Gallup, was awarded the prize offered to the handsomest young lady.

The award for the prettiest baby was made to Mrs. Aug. Snyder.
Mrs. Mary McKeith showed the smallest pair of hands and was giving a pair of gloves.

The judges decided that the finest colt exhibited was one belonging to Burk Ewing (colored).

Mr. Wm. Carey and nine children were present and secured the prize for the largest family.
John Doyle was the "oldest" man from the country (84 years) and was given the specialties.

The foot ball game between Gallup and Cat's Fork teams was witnessed by a very large crowd. It was the first game ever seen here.
Nobody was seriously hurt. Gallup won by a score of 16 to 0.

The game of base ball, between the lawyers and merchants resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 9 to 8. Three innings were all the players could stand and the game was closed by mutual consent.
The Catlettsburg colored baseball team beat the colored Louisia club out of sight.

A lawn tennis contest was played in the evening but was not concluded before darkness came on.
Our celebration was largely attended and the people apparently enjoyed the day. The threatening weather doubtless kept many portioners away.
The strike
It has quantity in action.

And Still They Come.

Just after the Democratic primary the Pick-at "reached out and led" for a sore place in the Democratic ranks. It not only failed to find it, but in return has been "getting it in the neck" ever since in about this style:

Brief, But to the Point.

To VOTERS OF LAWRENCE CO.:— I want it understood that I am not sorry over the primary, and that I am still a Democrat and expect to vote the ticket this fall and forever. Respectfully,

L. T. SIMPSON.

A Word From Mr. Roberts.

Along with my friends John Hayes and Tip Moore I desire to say a few words to my fellow Democrats about the result of the primary election.
I am a Democrat from principle and believe heartily in the Democratic idea of the majority rule, and I therefore submit readily to the will of my party as expressed by the majority vote in the primary. Mr. Woods secured the nomination fairly and honorably and I am for him heartily.

I appreciate the earnest support given me by a great many Democrats and hope to see them act just as enthusiastically for the party in November.

With good will toward all I remain, very respectfully,

The Louisia Schools.

The Board of Education met last Saturday evening and selected the following teachers for the next term of the Louisia Graded School:
U. S. G. Anderson Principal; J. E.
Mealy, Miss Maggie Hatcher and Miss Ida Billups assistants in the order named. School will open the second Monday in September for a session of five months, with a possibility of a longer term.

A departure was made in employing a male teacher for first assistant and it is generally approved by the patrons. Mr. Mealy is a graduate of a first class school and holds high recommendations. The other teachers were employed in last year's school and the results of their work are so well known that it is useless to speak of them here.
A profitable school is expected.
Let everybody help to make it a success.

Louisia, Ky.

DEAR SIR: On behalf of our alma-mater, the National Normal University, and in compliance with a movement on the part of the classic class, I take pleasure in writing you a few words concerning our meritorious and highly honored member from your section, Mr.
M. F. Dobbins came to the University in April '92, and the rapid progress he has since made affords another striking exemplification of Big Sandy talent. He prosecuted his work in Mathematics, Literature and Natural Science with a rare degree of skill and ability, when in the Scientific and in the Classic he has maintained a high standing in both Latin and Greek as well as Mental and Moral Philosophy. On the public platform he is quite a novelty. His very appearance is that of a polished orator, while his ease and grace on the stage are pleasing in the highest degree. His last public final, delivered a few weeks ago, was a splendid exhibition of natural but well trained talent and brought him to the front rank among the speakers of the classic class and of the University. His native ability, linked with the energy, persistence and ambition that belong to him and his lofty aspirations toward the accomplishment of something useful, noble and worthy, point out for him a successful career in whatever field of duty his taste may direct him. Very Respectfully, him.

Our school will soon begin, with J. H. Ekers teacher. John is an intelligent young man, and we wish him success.

We can not close our letter without saying something for our Sab-year ago we had plenty of whiskey and more than plenty of rioting and fighting. Now, since the whiskey is voted out, we have peace upon our highways, preaching twice a month and one of the best Sunday Schools in the State, under the superintendence of Rev. David Rice.

A. L. Watson says he would as soon ride a nail-saddle as any other kind, for there is more real enjoyment in them.

Miss Kate Graham, one of Blaine's fairest young ladies, made a call at our place to-day.

Hurrah for "Bill" Woods for Judge, and success to the News!

Louisia, Ky.

member from your section, Mr.
M. F. Dobbins came to the Univer-
his work in Mathematics, Literature and Natural Science with a
rare degree of skill and ability,
degree. His last public final, de-
the University. His native ability,
